"Just checking."

Mr. Wheat is an avid supporter of the Kennedy Physical Fitness Plan.

Dedicated to Mr. Gough Wheat

We are proud to dedicate this, the eighth edition of the SHIELD, to you, Mr. Gough Wheat. To us, the students of White Station, you represent the epitome of all the ideals we hold dear. Your essential fairness, humor, dedication, and genius are a rare, but highly desirable, combination in a teacher.

Because you have so thoroughly mastered mathematics and exuberate such enthusiasm for your subject, you have made learning both a challenge and a pleasure. It is with love and respect that we dedicate the 1964 SHIELD to you, Mr. Wheat.

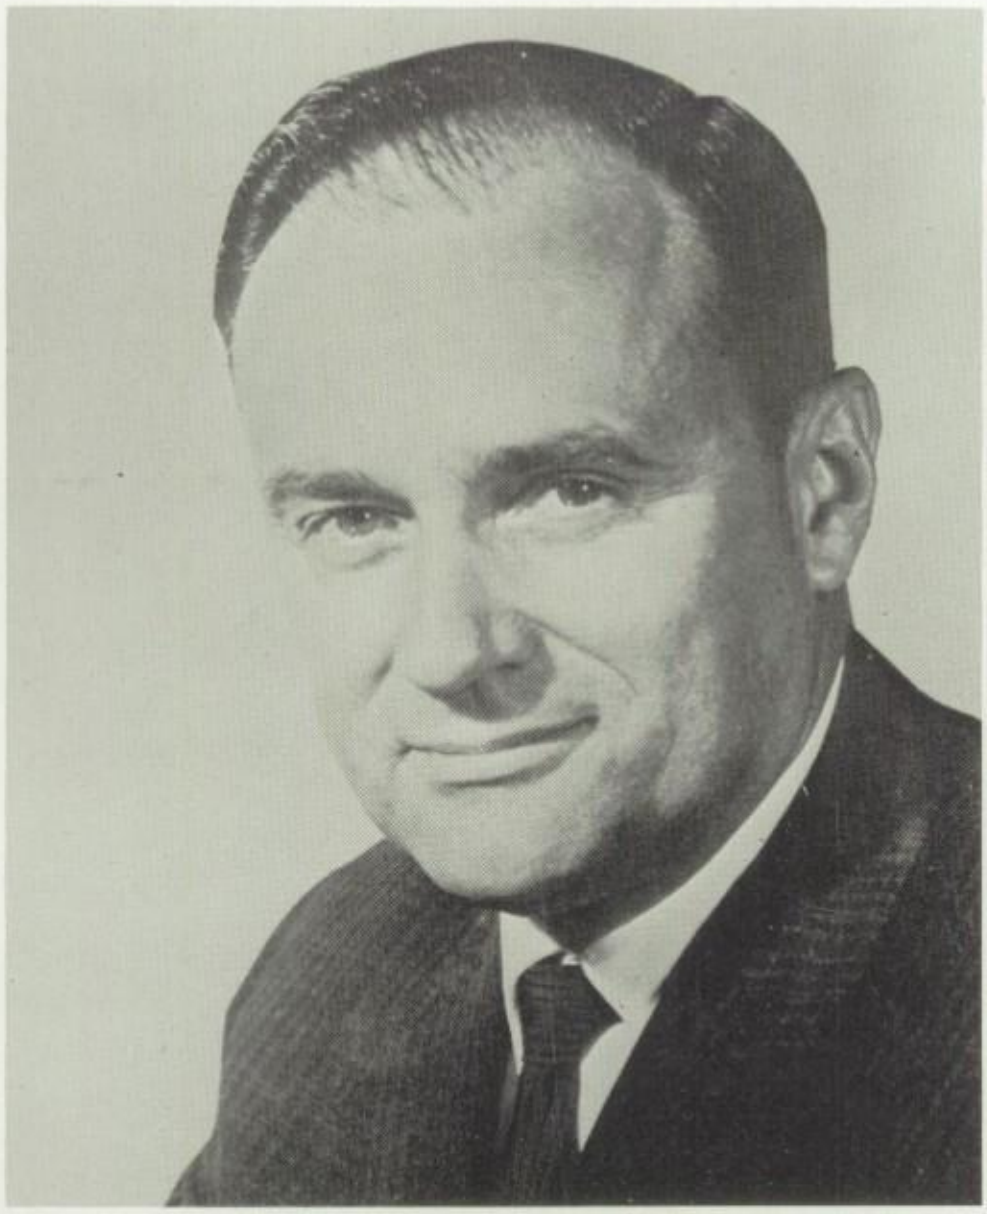
FACULTY

Board of Education



MR. E. C. STIMBERT
Superintendent of Memphis City Schools

The often unseen force responsible for our fine Memphis school system is the Staff and Board of Education. Constantly working to provide better facilities for teachers and students alike, the Board of Education strives to provide each pupil with the education he will require to lead a successful life.

We owe our sincere thanks to Mr. Stimbert and the Board of Education for placing our Memphis schools among the top ranked city school systems in the nation.

Guidance Counselors

The job of guiding young people in their academic pursuits is one of the most important in our school. Our dedicated counselors Mrs. Dorothy McGinnis, Mrs. Eleanor Randle, and Mr. Eugene Crain realize this importance and work constantly to help students find the solutions to their problems.

In their new guidance office is a complete library of college catalogues, vocational aids, and information on college board tests.

The students at White Station are deeply appreciative of the invaluable aid provided by these three people.

Frank Bloom helps himself to the career pamphlets posted on the bulletin board.

Helping students of all ages is the daily routine of Mr. Crain, Mrs. McGinnis, and Mrs. Randle.

Mr. Rush W. Siler

Principal

In the thirteen years that Mr. Siler has been principal of our school, White Station has progressed from a small county grammar school to a large city high school. Through Mr. Siler's continuous efforts we have achieved a high academic standing befitting a school of our size.

Mr. Siler has also served our community as president of the Kiwanis Club, chairman of the Prep League Association, and president of the Memphis Principals' Association.

Mr. Siler works diligently and comfortably in his newly redecorated office.

Principals

MR. GORDON L. GILBERT
Assistant Principal

Mr. Gilbert, our Assistant Principal, also serves White Station as a civics teacher. In past years he has performed the duties of a guidance counselor. We are indeed fortunate to have such a versatile man to assist in the administrative duties of our school.

Secretaries

The faces of Miss Jane Hipp and Mrs. Virginia Bankston are well known to all White Station students. Whether supplying thumb tacks for the bulletin board or handling Quill and Scroll dues, our secretaries combine efficiency with good spirits.

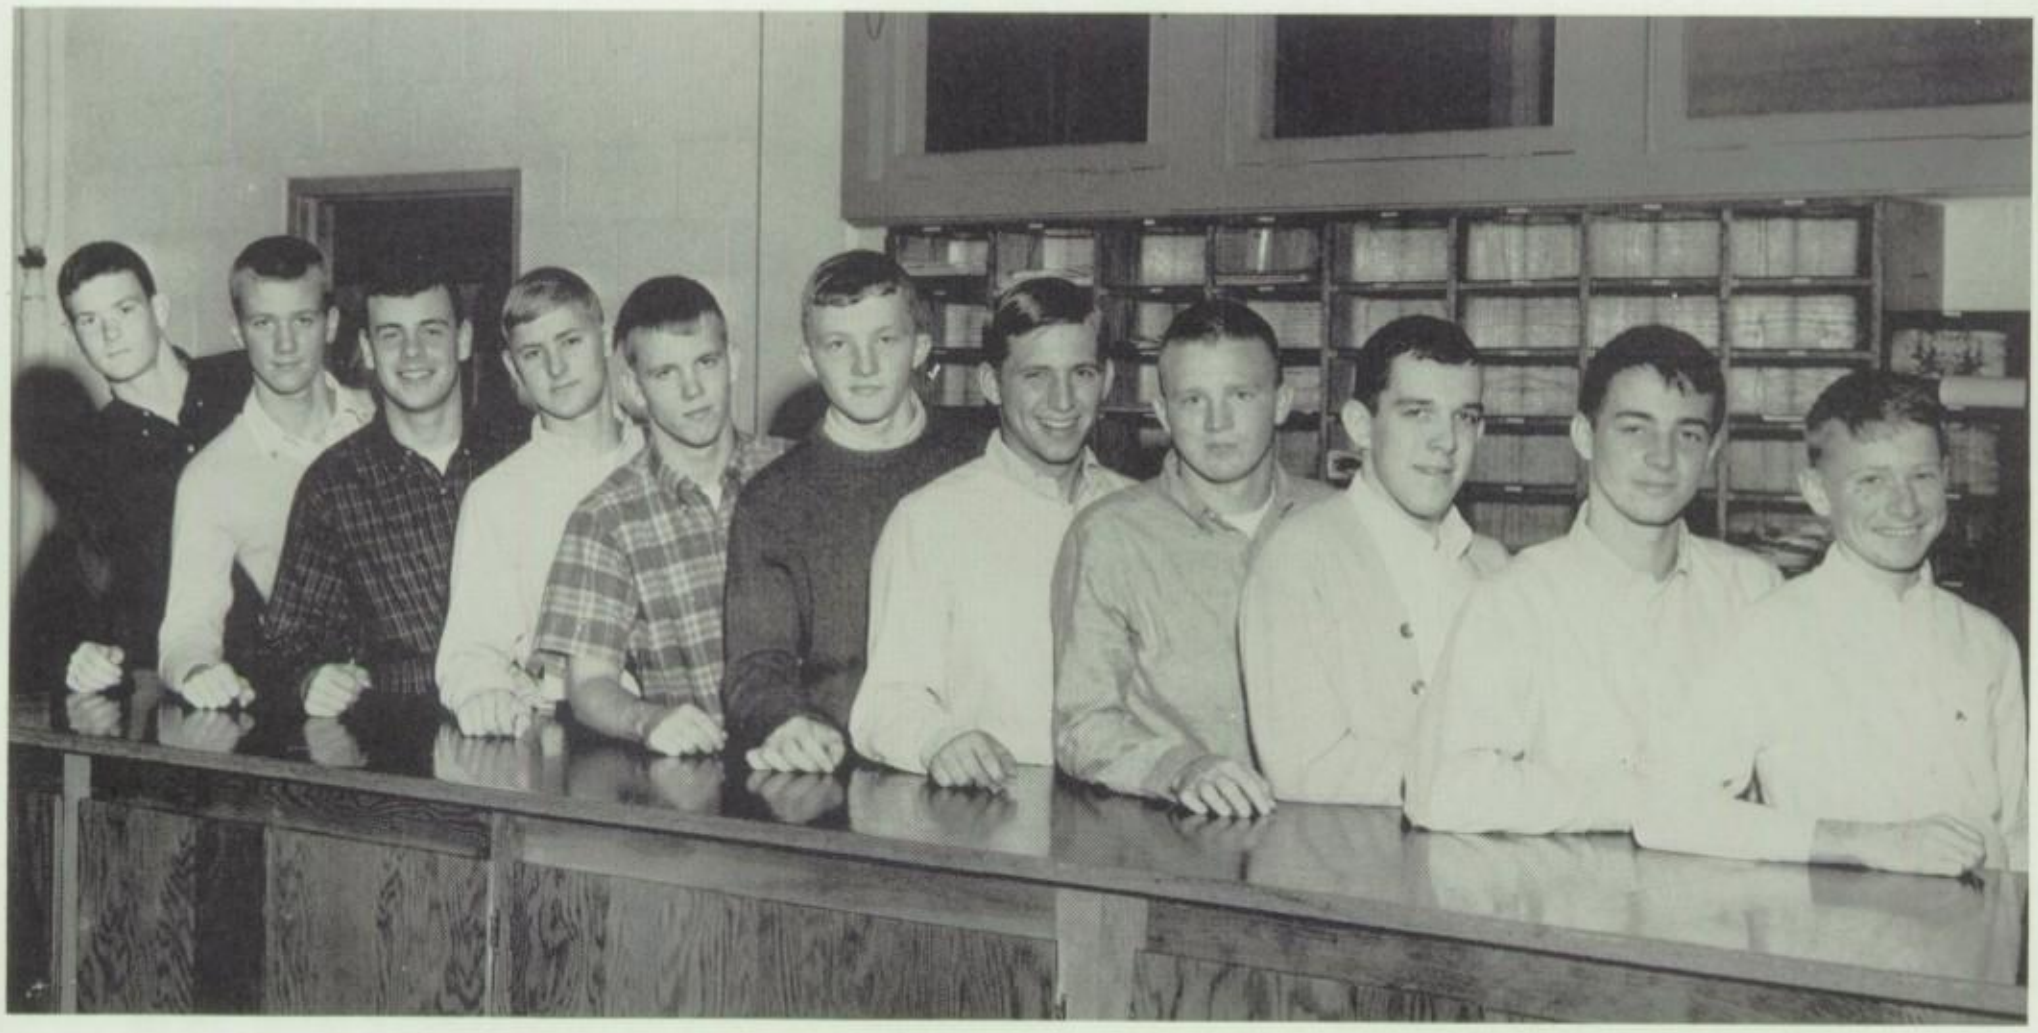
Never ending patience with even the smallest problems characterizes Mrs. Bankston and Miss Hipp, who have become an integral part of our school life.

"Quick, Doug! Run this lunch menu down to the teachers' lounge!"

Miss Hipp keeps the cubby holes brimming with bulletins to teachers.

"Whew! Only fifty absentee calls to make today!" Mrs. Bankston gleefully exclaims.

Office Helpers



Standing by to run errands and deliver messages are Lee Moffatt, Eric Dierks, Bill Wagner, Ross Ashley, Phil Steele, Bill Bradley, Richard Raines, Jimmy Williams, Paul Dorman, Jim Cole, and Jimmy Price.

Guidance Office Helpers

Administering KUDER Tests and assisting new students with their schedules occupy guidance office helpers: Leslie Hanna, Susan Cooper, Suzanne Gresham, Linda Beck, and Linda Dollar.

Pretty funny, huh, Mr. McClaren?

"Please, don't cry, John; you will graduate."

Class rings . . . . . hectic registration . . . . . the year begins . . . . . yelling at pep meetings . . . . . car caravans . . . . . football games . . . . . Homecoming . . . . . victory mixed with defeat . . . . . Trig., Physics, History, English—the senior studies . . . . . College Boards . . . . . graduation plans begin . . . . . basketball season . . . . . Exams . . . . . rehearsals for the musical . . . . . spring arrives . . . . . the senior class play . . . . . term papers due . . . . . final examinations . . . . . and at last it's here . . . . . GRADUATION.

THE KING

The fifth annual musical of the Speech, Vocal, and Instrumental Music Departments was performed on March 5 and 6, 1964, in the Spartan auditorium with an outstanding cast. THE KING AND I proved an excellent showcase for the talents of such Spartans as Joe Akin, Dottie Johnson, Karen Fancher, Jane Farrimond, and Wesley Summers. They were, however, assisted by an able and devoted group of supporting players.

Much of the charm of the production came from the appearance of several of our elementary school students who were delightful as the children. They sparkled in such numbers as "The March of the Siamese Children" and "Getting to Know You."

Joe Akin as the King turned in a performance that was of professional caliber. He was the epitome of royal dignity tempered somewhat by a childish curiosity of the rest of the world. Dottie Johnson, as Anna, and Karen Fancher, as Lady Thiang, were perfect complements to the king in their quiet dignity and beauty.

AND I

The voices in this production had a maturity that paid marvelous tribute to the beautiful score of Rodgers and Hammerstein. Mrs. JoAnn Luebkeman did an outstanding job of training the principals and the chorus. Mr. Nick Vergos and the orchestral background and accompaniment were of the first quality. Mary Jane Fitch and her crew produced a set that was not only beautiful, but functional as well. It was probably the best single set for a musical that White Station has had.

The production was staged and directed with style and insight by Mr. Eugene Crain, with superlative choreography by Miss Jean Meadows. Her "The Small House of Uncle Thomas" ballet was imaginative and colorful.

It is proper that we pay tribute at this time to someone who has been a mainstay of the musicals since their beginning—Larry Pugh. Larry has been rehearsal accompanist and orchestra pianist for all five productions. From all those concerned—past and present—a heartfelt THANK YOU, Larry.

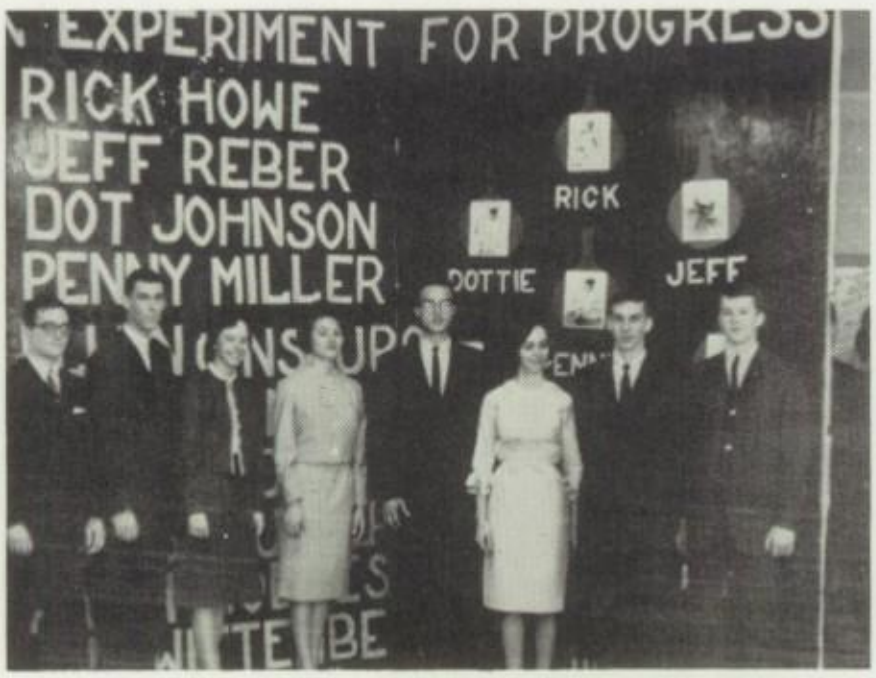
Nancy Candler, Betsy Culbertson, and Marilyn Prescott starred in the Speech Department's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Louis and Dottie, as well as the school, were honored by the Commercial Appeal when White Station was the first "School of the Month."

CREDITS to

Ann, Janice, and Pat are hard at work on sets for the "King and I."

The homecoming royalty were honored on a most momentous night.



The Gray team experimented with new ideas in the Student Council Elections.

All aboard with the Green team!

After long hours of hard work, "Babes in Arms" became a reality with Warner and Dottie playing the leads.

Pat and Ann added to the successfulness of "Our Town."

This year's Key Club has proven beyond a doubt that it is not only a school service club, but also a community service club. Participating three times in the Sabin Oral Sunday vaccine day and helping collect money for the Salvation Army were a few of the club's community projects. Around the school a fire lane curb, a new coat of paint for the school mailbox and the publication of the 1964 Buzzbook were some of this year's projects. Ending this year with elections and a trip to the District Convention held at Biloxi, Mississippi, the 1963-1964 Key Club believes that they have once again completed a successful year of school and community service.

SHIELD

The purpose of our '64 SHIELD is to provide a literary and pictorial record of life at White Station during the past year. This resulting product is the combined handiwork of nine editors, a faculty advisor, and almost fifty other staff members. When the SHIELD editors began planning this annual last spring, working with our new faculty advisor, Mrs. Patsy Nutt, we were all awed by the enormity of the job lying before us. Now that the stormy routine of pictures, ads, sports, clubs, classes, captions, layouts, and midnight trips to the post office has ceased, we are still awed by the amount of work finally behind us. We of the 1964 SHIELD are proud and pleased with this yearbook, our lasting contribution to the school. We sincerely hope that through our efforts the students of White Station will always be happily reminded of the people and events of 1963-1964.

The SCROLL, the newspaper published by and for the students of White Station, made its debut in December, 1953. Since then the paper has been published monthly and is one of the few papers published by a Memphis high school to contain six pages at frequent intervals. Written to inform and entertain the student body and faculty, the SCROLL has been awarded first place accreditation by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the International Quill and Scroll rating. The SCROLL is one of the top two newspapers published by Tennessee public high schools. Applicants for the writing staff spend six weeks in a journalism course on the basis of journalistic knowledge and ability before becoming staff members. A similar, but shorter, program is held for business staff applicants.

The first literary magazine of its kind published by students of a Memphis public school, the Scribbler, was organized in 1959 to further creativity in writing and art. As the result of the outstanding short stories, poems, and essays submitted by the students of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, the careful scrutinization of the contributions by the editorial board, and the excellent illustrations of the art staff, the Scribbler has been highly accredited by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association each year since its organization.

QUILL and SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is the International Honor Society for High School Journalists, which recognizes those students who have accomplished achievements not only within the academic realm, but also within the field of the literary endeavors. Membership is selective. Each candidate must be a Junior or Senior in the upper third of his class, and he must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publications. White Station's Chapter was established in 1956 and named after the editorial cartoonist, Cal Alley. Our chapter instills the ideal of scholarship, advances the standards of journalism, and promotes exact thinking and forceful writing. These combined ideals form the threefold purpose of Quill and Scroll.

TRI-M

"MUSIC IS A TRIUMPH!" It is with this attitude that musically talented White Station students strive for greater and finer achievements in music, each with the common goal of membership into the Modern Music Masters Society, more commonly referred to as Tri-M. New inductees are selected strictly on a merit basis. The major requirements include musicianship, scholarship, leadership, character, attitude, and service. Students eligible for Tri-M membership must have also had a minimum of one semester of music in which he made an "A" or "B", while maintaining a "C" average in academic subjects. One of the principal goals of Tri-M is to inspire more talented young people to develop their talents to the peak of their capabilities and to encourage them to share these talents with the church, school, and community.

The National Thespian Society, of which White Station is a member, is an organization designed to promote the dramatic arts in secondary schools.

Last fall the Thespians presented "Our Town" and "Arsenic and Old Lace." For our musical last year we presented "Babes in Arms." This year in cooperation with the music department we presented "The King and I."

Every spring an annual Thespian banquet is held, and yearly awards for Best Actor and Actress, Best Thespian, and Honor Thespian are presented.

The club, composed of forty members, is headed by Mr. Eugene Crain.

Senior High Football

The unyielding Spartan defensive wall crushes a futile C.B.C. draw play.

A jarring tackle by Larry Busby results in a C.B.C. fumble on the 10 yard line.

Led by Head Coach Ken Floyd and assistants A. G. Mangum and Larry Heathcott, the White Station Senior High football team had its best year in the history of the school.

The team, sparked by the outstanding play of captain Tom Somerville, all Memphis and all state selection; Dick Cockrell and Phil Steele, all Eastern Division choices; and Mike Wadley, Fred Raby, Doug Mabry and Jimmy Simmons, honorable mention; posted a 7-2-1 record and finished third in the powerful Eastern Division.

The Spartans opened the season with an exciting last minute victory over Frayser and then went on to defeat rival Kingsbury. Powerful CBHS, city champs, handed the WS gridders their first defeat, but the Spartans rebounded with decisive wins over Overton, East, Humes and Treadwell. In the top game of the season against Messick at Homecoming, with the Blind Game berth at stake, the Spartans fought furiously but met defeat, 13-0. They ended a very successful season with a victory over Millington and a tie with fired-up MUS.

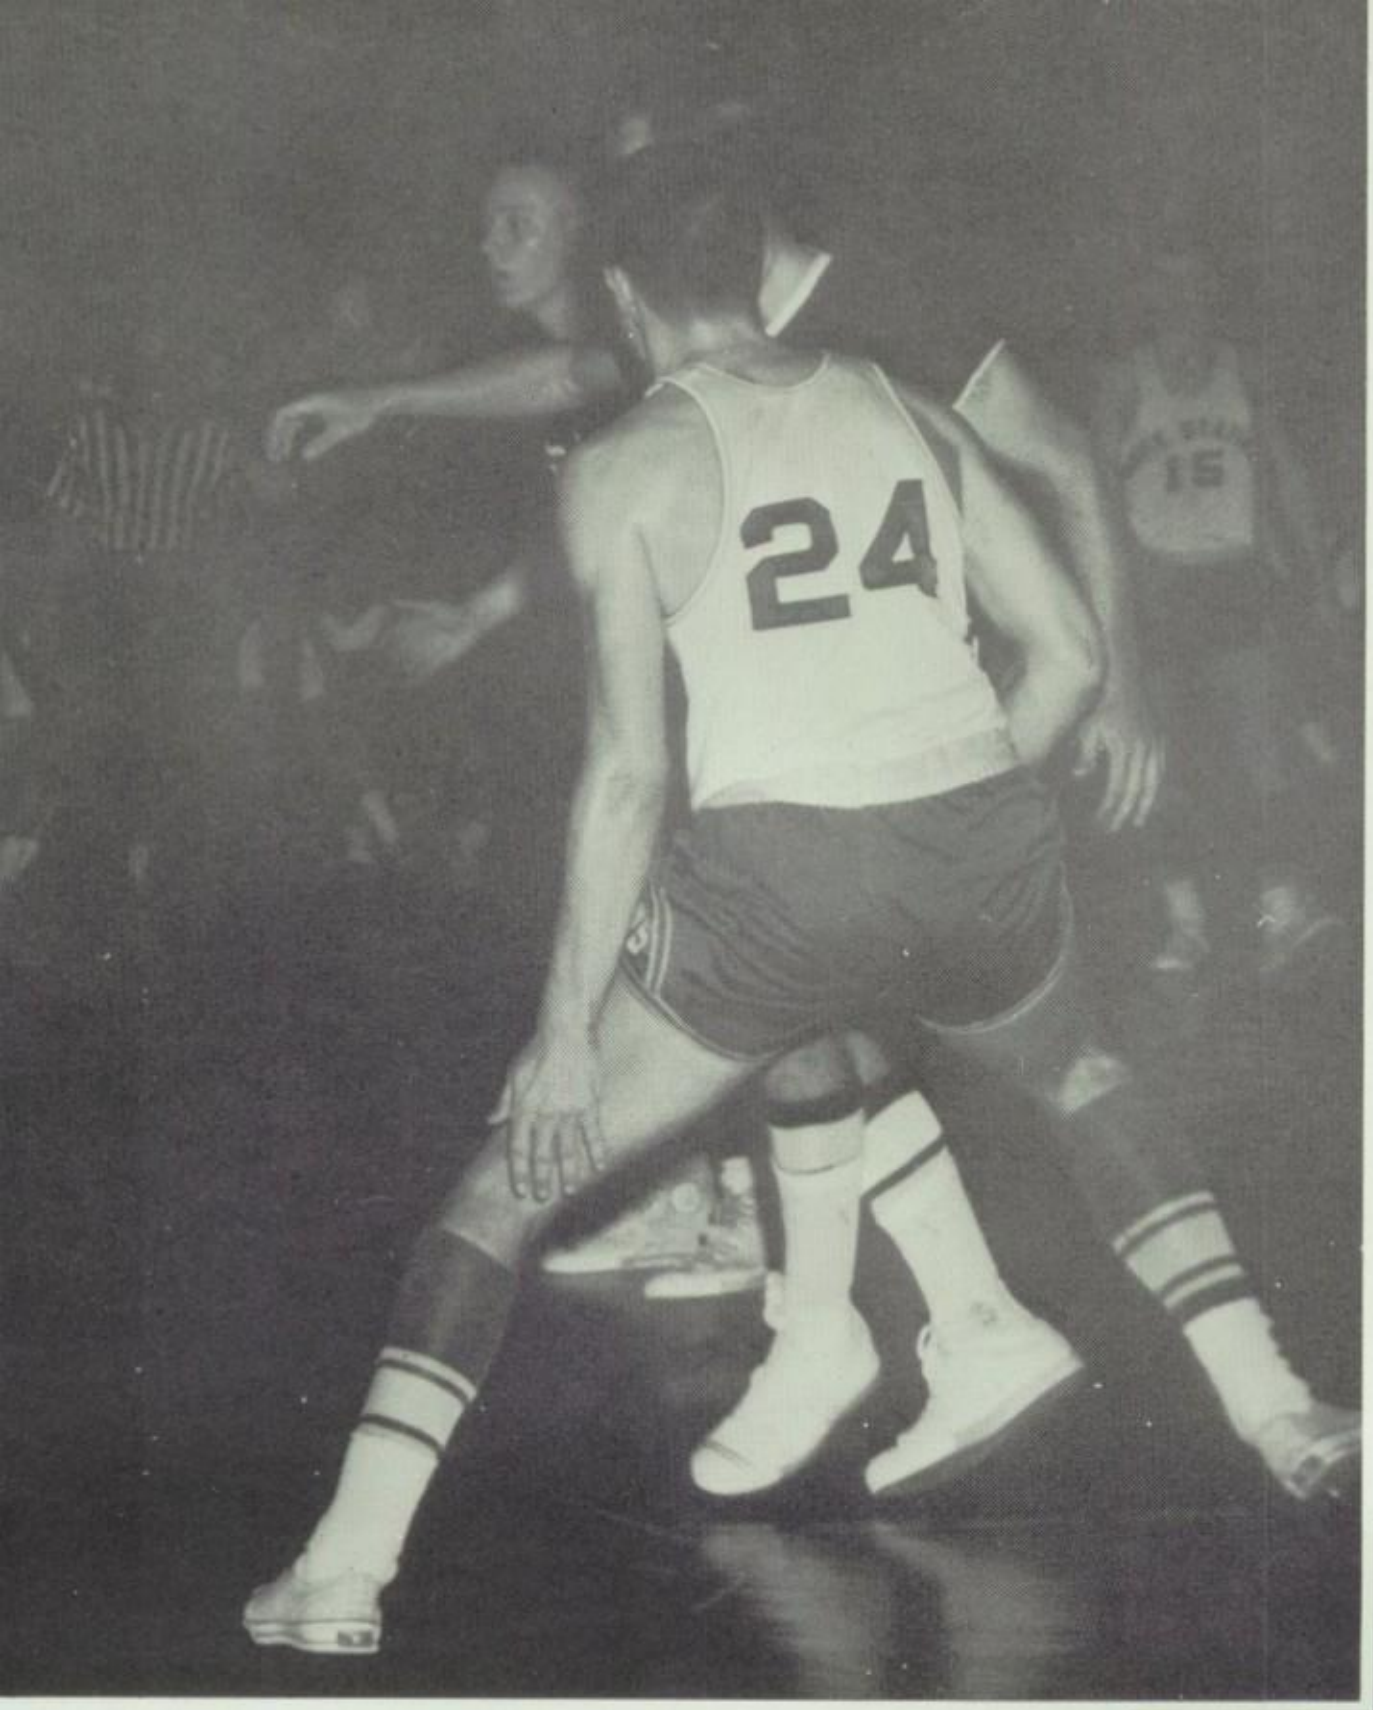
Earlier in the season WSHS defeated East 50-38 and in the last game of the regular season lost to Overton in the last minute of play.



C. B. Baker arches high into the air as Ed Huntzicker looks on.

Midway in the season, after defeating Messick, CBHS, Catholic, and South Side the roundballers defeated Whitehaven.

In District 36, WSHS defeated South Side 43-35 in the first game and in the second game rallied from a 12 point deficit to be barely nipped by Frayser 50-47.
